

Notice of Privacy Practices

Summerlin Imaging Center, DBA Jacksonville Diagnostic Imaging, DBA Gainesville Diagnostic Imaging

Summerlin Imaging Center, DBA Jacksonville Diagnostic Imaging, DBA Park Avenue Imaging, DBA Gainesville Diagnostic Imaging is committed to preserving the privacy of your health information. In fact, we are required by law to provide you with a notice describing how information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information.

Although your health record is the physical property of the healthcare practitioner or facility that complied it, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Inspect and copy your protected health information.
- Request to receive confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an alternative location.
- Have your protected health information corrected or amended.
- Receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your protected health information.
- Obtain a paper copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices from us.

We use health information about you for treatment, to obtain payment for treatment, for administrative purposes and to evaluate the quality of patient care. In addition, we may be required or permitted by certain laws to use and disclose your medical information for other purposes without your consent or authorization.

We have available a detailed Notice of Privacy Practices which fully explains your rights, uses of your health information, and our obligations under the law. If you would like a copy of this detailed notice, please request a copy at the front desk.

The Notice of Privacy Practices may be revised from time to time and you may request a copy of a revised notice at any time. The effective date at the top right-hand side of this page indicates the date of the most current Notice in effect.

If you have any questions about the Notice and its context, or if you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint with our Compliance Officer or with the Secretary of Health & Human services. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint.
